

UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS

The Graduate School
Office for Graduate Research (OGR),
Center for Continuing Professional Education and Development (CCPED)
and
Office of the Vice Rector for Research and Innovation (OVRRI)

ETHICS IN RESEARCH INVOLVING HUMAN PARTICIPANTS for GRADUATE STUDENTS

28 March 2015 ; 8:00am to 5:00pm

Thomas Aquinas Research Complex (TARC) Auditorium

GENERAL OBJECTIVE:

- To be able to apply research ethics guidelines and principles in the conduct of thesis and dissertations.

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES:

- ✓ Apply international and national ethical guidelines and regulations in the conduct of research;
- ✓ Identify and differentiate the roles and responsibilities of stakeholders involved in research;
- ✓ Be able to draft an informed consent appropriate for the research to be conducted;
- ✓ Evaluate health research protocols for issues arising from ethical concerns.

For inquiries and registration, please proceed to:

CENTER FOR CONTINUING PROFESSIONAL EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT (CCPED)
Ground Floor, Thomas Aquinas Research Complex
University of Santo Tomas
Office Schedule: Tuesday to Saturday ; 8:00am to 5:00pm
Landline: (632) 406-1611 local 4030
Email: ust_ccped@yahoo.com or ccped@mnl.ust.edu.ph
Website: <http://graduateschool.ust.edu.ph/ccped>