

A first for the Philippines
and
The first in the Philippines

The 2nd Asian Regional Conference of the International Association of Forensic Linguists

UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS
THE GRADUATE SCHOOL
THOMAS AQUINAS RESEARCH COMPLEX

<http://graduateschool.ust.edu.ph>

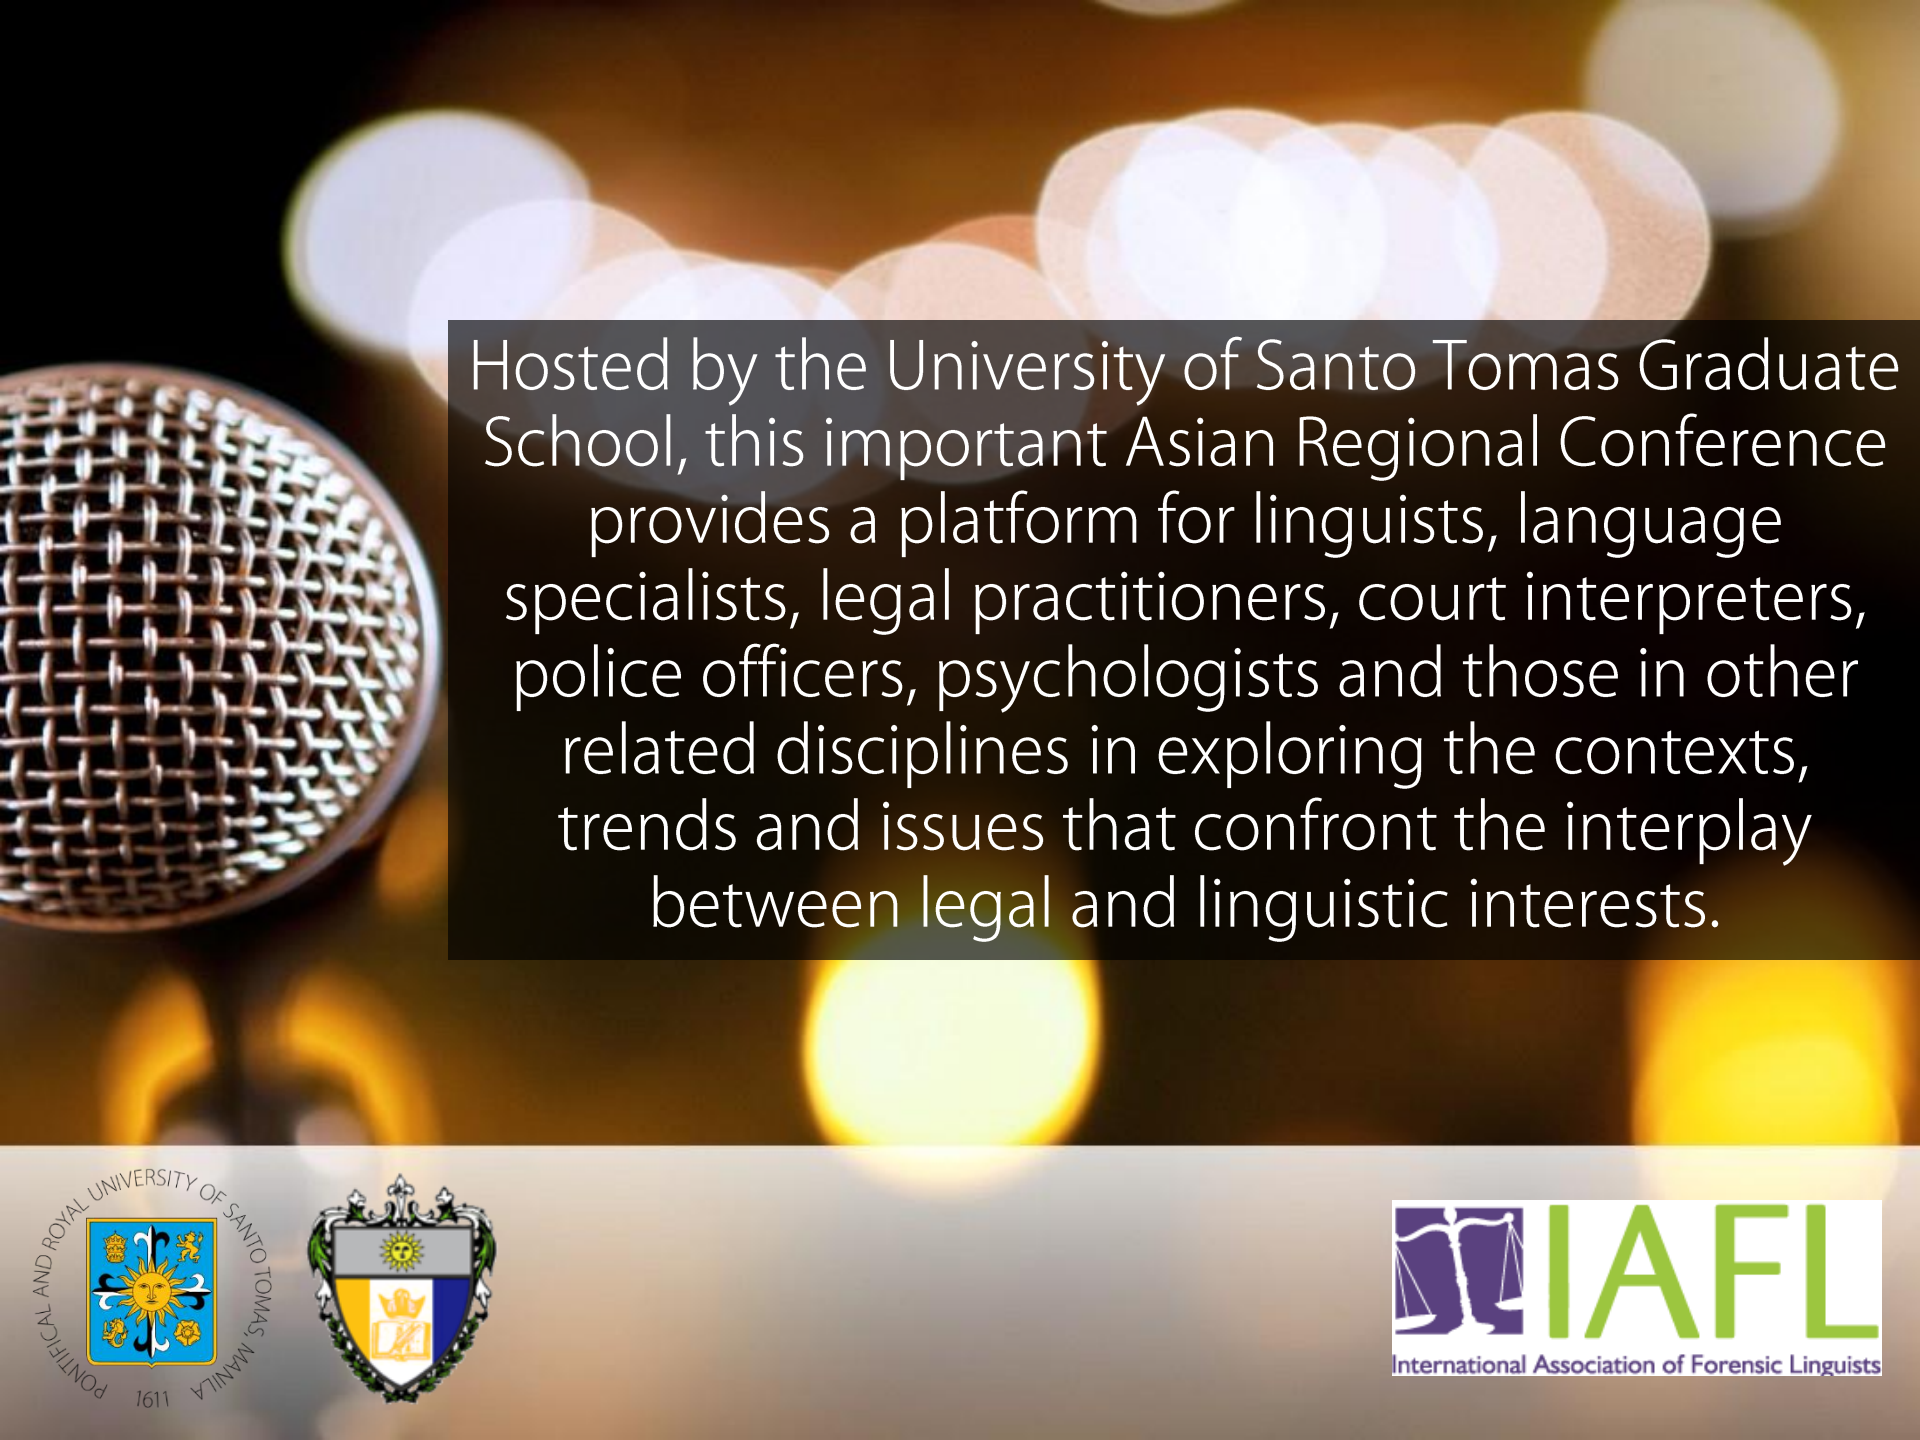

International Association of Forensic Linguists

Theme:
Forensic Linguistics/Language
and Law:
Contexts, Issues and Trends

July 7-9, 2016

Hosted by the University of Santo Tomas Graduate School, this important Asian Regional Conference provides a platform for linguists, language specialists, legal practitioners, court interpreters, police officers, psychologists and those in other related disciplines in exploring the contexts, trends and issues that confront the interplay between legal and linguistic interests.

Bringing together the global forensic linguistic community

The IAFL is an international organization whose main purpose is to help improve the delivery of justice through a greater awareness of the intersection between language and the law.

Hosted by the University of Santo Tomas Graduate School, the 2nd IAFL Asian Regional Conference will take place at the University of Santo Tomas, Manila, Philippines from the 7th to the 9th of July 2016

The conference aims to engage a wide range of critical perspectives and an interdisciplinary dialogue through plenary sessions, parallel presentations and panel discussions that...

- enhance understanding in intersections between language and the law in various contexts;
- examine recent developments in the field of language and the law;
- identify current issues, challenges and opportunities in forensic linguistic studies

International plenary speakers from around the world as well as scholars from various multidisciplinary settings...

Professor Janet Ainsworth
John D. Eshelman Professor of Law
Seattle University School of Law
United States

International plenary speakers from around the world as well as scholars from various multidisciplinary settings...

Dr. Krzysztof Kredens
Deputy Director of the Centre for Forensic Linguistics
Aston University
United Kingdom

International plenary speakers from around the world as well as scholars from various multidisciplinary settings...

...are expected to converge in Manila for this important event

Dr. Ng Nga Shan Eva
Assistant Professor
School of Chinese
University of Hong Kong
Hong Kong, SAR

...are expected to converge in Manila for this
important event

Dr. Le Cheng
Director of Center for Legal Discourse and Translation
Zhejiang University
China

...are expected to converge in Manila for this important event

Dr Georgina Heydon
Acting Director
Centre for Global Research
RMIT University
Australia

Participants will present on all topics of forensic linguistics/ language and law covering language and the legal process, language, crime and law and language as evidence. Topics include but are not limited to the following strands:

- Legal Languages
- Legal Discourse and Legal Semiotics
- Courtroom Translating and Interpreting
- Expert Witnessing and Linguistic Evidence
- Authorship Attribution
- Police Interviewing
- Courtroom Interaction
- Courtroom Questioning
- Speaker/Authorship Recognition
- Corpus-based Study on Legal Language
- Deception Detection
- Product Warnings
- Teaching of Language and Law

Following on, immediately after the IAFL Asian Regional Conference, the International Summer School in Forensic Linguistic Analysis will also be hosted by the University of Santo Tomas Graduate School on July 11-14, 2016

Founded in 2000 by Prof. Malcolm Coulthard, the International Summer School in Forensic Linguistic Analysis addresses topics to do with the role, shape and evidential value of language in legal and forensic contexts. It was created in response to a growing demand for a course affording an overview of forensic linguistics while also laying solid foundations for a further study of this new branch of applied linguistics.

*Further details can be obtained from the course director, Dr. Krzysztof Kredens, Deputy Director of the Centre for Forensic Linguistics at Aston University, UK (k.j.kredens@aston.ac.uk).

INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL IN FORENSIC LINGUISTIC ANALYSIS

SIXTEENTH EDITION

OPEN FOR REGISTRATION

July 11-14, 2016

University of Santo Tomas Graduate School
España, Manila, Philippines

This four-day intensive course will dovetail with the 2nd Asian Regional Conference of the International Association of Forensic Linguistics
(IAFL) scheduled on 7-9 July 2016

Please contact:

Dr.Krzysztof Kredens, Deputy Director of the Centre for Forensic Linguistics
Aston University, United Kingdom

Email Address: k.j.kredens@aston.ac.uk.

For inquiries, sponsorships, submission of abstracts and registration, please email the Secretariat:

iaflrcphils2016@gmail.com

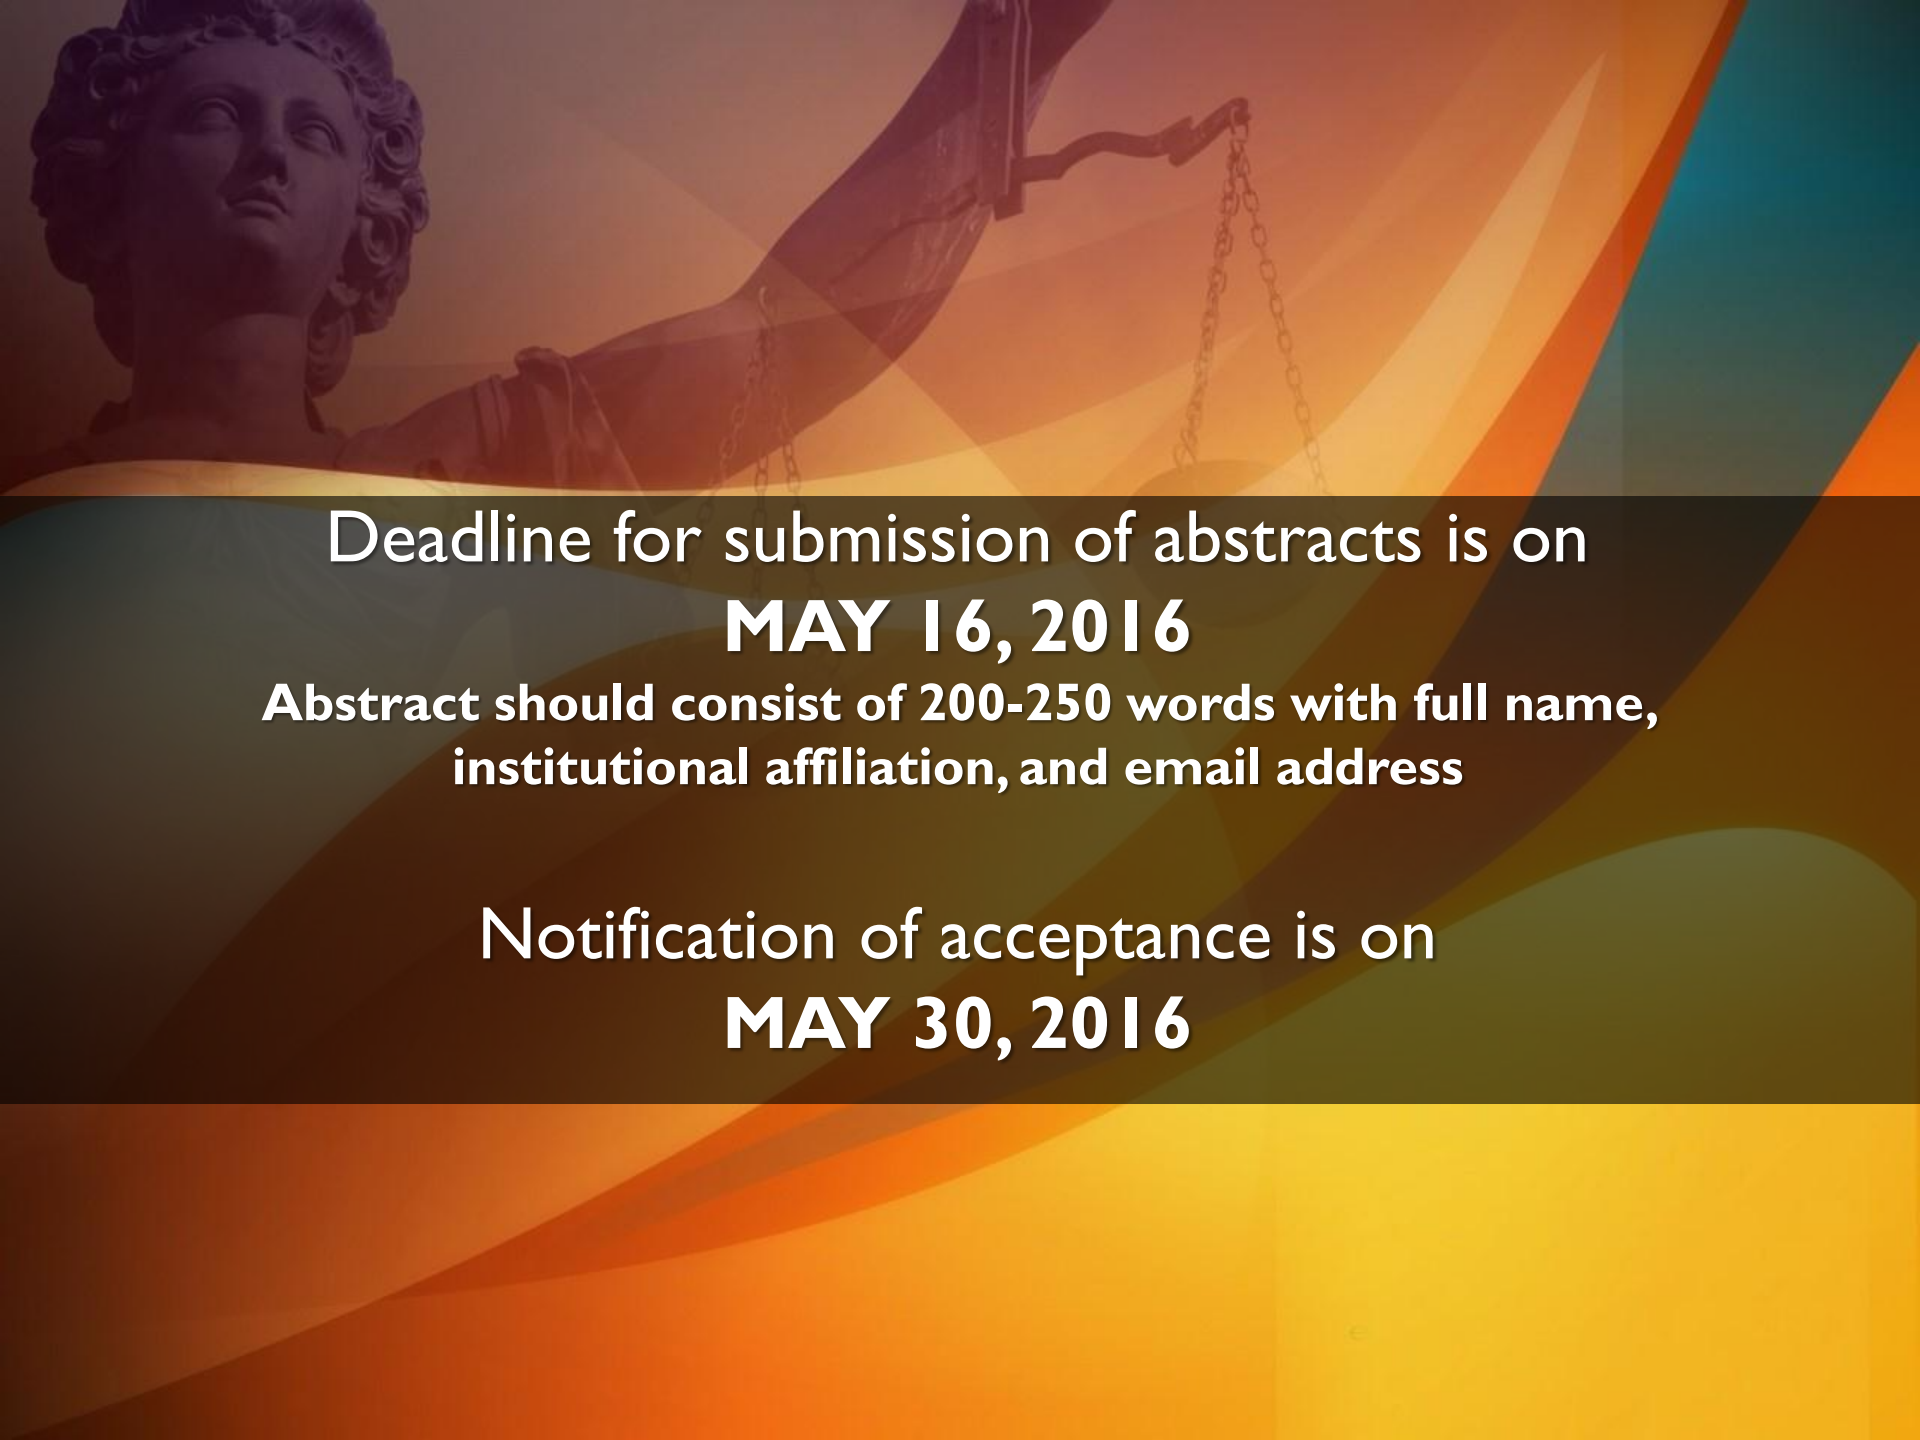

Welcome to the 2nd Asian Regional Conference of the International Association of Forensic Linguists (IAFL)

Marilu Rañosa-Madrurnio Ph.D.
Convenor
Professor and Dean
The Graduate School
University of Santo Tomas
España Boulevard, Manila, Philippines
Telephone: +63 2 7315396
email:
mrmadrurnio@ust.edu.ph
Website: graduateschool.ust.edu.ph

Isabel Picornell, Ph.D.
Co-Convenor
Secretary
International Association of Forensic
Linguists (IAFL)
email: isabel@qedforensics.com
Website: graduateschool.ust.edu.ph

Deadline for submission of abstracts is on
MAY 16, 2016

Abstract should consist of 200-250 words with full name, institutional affiliation, and email address

Notification of acceptance is on
MAY 30, 2016

ONLINE REGISTRATION is encouraged:
APRIL 1, 2016 to JUNE 15, 2016

International Participants

Regular conference fee	$180
Early Registration/Student fee (April 1-May 30, 2016)	$150
IAFL Members	$150

Local Participants

Regular conference fee	Php 6000
Early Registration/Student fee (April 1-May 30, 2016)	Php 5000
IAFL Members	Php 5000

A first for the Philippines
and
The first in the Philippines

The 2nd Asian Regional Conference of the International Association of Forensic Linguists

UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS
THE GRADUATE SCHOOL
THOMAS AQUINAS RESEARCH COMPLEX

<http://graduateschool.ust.edu.ph>

International Association of Forensic Linguists

Theme:
Forensic Linguistics/Language
and Law:
Contexts, Issues and Trends

July 7-9, 2016