

ANNOUNCEMENT

NEW Master in Nursing Education (NON-THESIS PROGRAM)

The UST Graduate School offers the MASTER IN NURSING EDUCATION (MNE) program for the First Term AY 2024-2025.

The UST Graduate School is one of the HEIs identified by CHED as qualified to offer the Master in Nursing Education (MNE) program for AY 2024-2025.

APPLY NOW >

SCAN ME

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Application Form (with photo)
- Admission Essay (see instructions given on page 2 of the application form)
- Certificate of General Weighted Average (GWA) or GPA (for non-UST Graduates only)
- Official and Original Transcript of Records (Graduate of a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from a recognized HEI)
- Certificate of Good Moral Character (from former school or current employer)
- Certificate of Employment (At least one (1) year of relevant clinical experience, either in the hospital or community setting)
- Copy of PRC license (Registered nurse with an updated PRC card)
- Nursing portfolio of professional experience and competencies
- For foreign applicants from EFL countries (English as a Foreign Language): TOEFL, IELTS or TOEIC
- Referral Form. This confidential form must be directly submitted to graduate-school.admission@ust.edu.ph by the recommender.

DEADLINE

EXTENDED

Deadline of Application is on AUGUST 21, 2024 (Wednesday; 5:00pm)

Note: Incomplete documents will not be processed.