Mission Statement
We are a Catholic institution of learning dedicated to advancing the frontiers of knowledge in the theoretical and applied fields through quality graduate education that is comprehensive and responsive to the needs of society.

We are committed to the formation of scholars and high-quality professionals who are ethical, competent, compassionate, and committed to the service of their respective professions, the church, the nation, and the global community.

Vision Statement
We envision a Graduate School that stands for excellence and innovation and that is globally recognized for its distinct degree programs and quality research outputs.

Goals and Objectives
The Graduate School commits itself to develop:

1. competent professionals who, inspired by the ideals of St. Antoninus of Florence, promote excellence in the production, advancement, and transmission of specialized knowledge and skills in the sciences, the arts, and community service;

2. scholarly researchers and creative thinkers who, kindled by St. Thomas Aquinas’ ardor for truth, aspire to become fonts of intellectual creativity and, in their quest for quality research, are proficient and critical in assessing and communicating information in various fields that impact the professions, the church, the nation, and the global community;

3. professional Christian leaders who, touched by St. Dominic de Guzman’s apostolic fire and warmed by Mary’s motherly care, articulate ethics and truth, high level of moral maturity in resolving issues and promoting social justice and compassion for the poor, and care for the environment;

4. globally engaged citizens who, with ardent advocacy for life, promote a deeper understanding of tolerance and justice as well as linguistic, religious, and cultural diversities as a result of precise evaluation of modern problems and inquiries;

5. committed scholars who, nurtured by the dogmas of Christian faith and values, are dedicated to the pursuit of truth through the promotion of an intellectual culture that values academic rigor and freedom of scientific investigations; and

6. lifelong learners who, empowered by St. Antoninus of Florence’s zeal for learning, are committed to the advancement of a higher culture through a continuous search for intellectual inquiries and new knowledge as well as faithfulness to Catholic intellectual traditions.

Program Intended Learning Outcomes (PILO)
After completing the degree program, the student must be able to:

1. Critique received/extant communication theory, or appropriate, indigenize, native, vernacularize or contextualize said received/extant theories

2. Utilize theoretical knowledge to conduct original research that will enlighten Philippine communication as a social process

3. Conceptualize, carry-out, present, and publish original research papers to deepen and widen the corpus of knowledge in communication and allied disciplines;

4. Administer, manage, and lead a research group, organization, or institution to realize the research and development agenda of the organization vis-a-vis the country.

5. Produce ingenious, relevant communication materials and transfer such ingenuity to fellow communication/media workers; and

6. Develop, handle and supervise communication for development programs that contribute to achieving socio-economic development outcomes and bolster organizations standing in the media industry.

7. Become professional communicators across the disciplines — arts, sciences, religious — crafting and disseminating messages that reach out effectively to various publics.

8. Become proficient users of the different media platforms, traditional and emergent, disseminating information responsibly and ethically to national and global audiences.
